

Employment opportunity

If you're an enthusiastic, innovative and results driven person...We want you for New Zealand!

A significant opportunity exists to join a very successful, market leading International company offering a diverse range of products for the farming sector. With an enviable reputation for quality, innovation and position in the Australian and International markets.

HARDI has a positive and professional outlook to its employees and the way they conduct their business in the market place.

We are seeking motivated people for the opportunity to be part of this iconic International Company expanding their operation to the region of Palmerston North New Zealand in October 2011.

The following positions are available:

Manager
Sales representative
Administrator
Part interpreter/customer service
Parts picker & dispatcher
Assembler
Service technician

HARDI has a down-to-earth culture with people from a wide range of backgrounds, just like the people you will be building relationships with every day. The successful applicants will be required to;

- Communicate with a wide range of people and become the trusted advisor to our customers.
- Establish and maintain quality relationships with all our customers, a vital component to these roles.
- Exploit every opportunity to utilise your skills and experience within a fast moving business.
- Take pride in delivering high quality service.
- Have organizational and planning skills, be able to identify and resolve issues in work flow, and have good communication skills.
- Have an understanding of agricultural is a bonus.
- Have customer service ethics that sees you strive to achieve the very best for the customer and company.
- Be an innovative high achiever with keen desire to be part of a successful and dynamic team.
- Be a proactive problem solver.
- Confident and comfortable giving practical advice and working with customers.
- Perform at a consistently high level across a range of key areas.
- Be able to hit the ground running.
- Lead by example without fear of getting your hands dirty.
- Have loyalty. Relationship hinges on longevities so you will need to be faithful and committed.

If you are enthusiastic, innovative, results-driven, strives to deliver quality products and service... And someone who enjoys a hands-on-role and gets involved at every level to achieve results... We would like to hear from you!

It's not a job for the fainthearted or the weak, that's why we are successful!

Applicants with relevant experience should apply, including details of experience and a cover letter that leaves me with no doubt you are the best person for this great opportunity. Email Linden Forbes at LF@hardi-aus.com